BORDEAUX

Although Bordeaux is now listed as one of the most beautiful cities in France by UNESCO, it has a rich history dating back to antiquity.

Bordeaux has splendid architecture with, for example, its Grand Théâtre or its legendary Place de la Bourse.

It is a river city that allows you to stroll along its quays all year round and discover its history by passing through the Chartrons district and ending up at the Cité du Vin.

BORDEAUX GASTRONOMY

In Bordeaux, wine and gastronomy are part of the heritage and are one of the essentials elements of the Bordeaux way of life.

Thanks to the richness of its vineyards, its proximity to the ocean, the Arcachon bassin, the estuary, but also the influence of the Périgord and the Basque country, the city of Bordeaux is full of starred gastronomic restaurants.

From starred chef Gordon Ramsay to famous French chef Philippe Etchebest, enjoy an incomparable culinary experience that pays tribute to regional products.

Black truffles from the Gironde and foie gras from the Charente are all references to the richness of France's culinary heritage, to be discovered in a starred restaurant in the heart of the vineyards.

Then, set off to discover the region's prestigious castles. Immerse yourself in the art of winemaking with exclusive tours and tastings, which will make you appreciate all the richness of Saint-Émilion wines.

For lunch, treat yourself to a gourmet break in a Michelin-starred restaurant. Savor a food and wine pairing menu, each dish a true symphony of flavors.

This day in Saint-Émilion will be a celebration of the region's wine and gastronomic excellence.

BASSIN D'ARCACHON : PRIVATE CRUISE AND LUXURIOUS DINNER

Private boat tour

The afternoon begins on the calm waters of the Arcachon Bay. Climb aboard an elegant boat, this traditional boat that embodies the spirit and history of the region.

On board, a feast of local flavors awaits you with only fresh produce...

Exceptional dinner

The magic continues as the sun begins its descent... After a day on the water, you will have dinner at unique and emblematic restaurant perched on the heights of the Dune du Pilat.

The talented chefs offer you a refined menu, inspired by fresh market produce and local culinary traditions.

GOLF COURSES

Voted best golf course in the middle of the Medoc vineyards, the 36 holes in this unique universe are in the purest tradition of Scottish links.

The wide fairways lined with heather, gorse and broom, lead the players into a preserved nature. The quality of the greens, the influence of the ocean breezes and the technical richness of the layout make this championship course a first class golfing challenge.

Inaugurated in 1900, this golf is one of the five oldest golf courses in France. This private club offers its members and their guests exclusive access to the course throughout the week.

Meticulously maintained to impeccable standards, this private course winds its way through centuries-old oak trees and water hazards, nestled in a pristine natural setting.

THE GREAT APPELLATIONS OF BORDEAUX VINEYARDS

MARGAUX

AOC Margaux is the only communal appellation in the Haut-Médoc to bear the name of a premier Grand Cru Classé, Château Margaux, which selects the best soils and has some of the most beautiful gravelly slopes in the whole of Bordeaux.

SAINT-JULIEN

The AOC Saint-Julien is located in the geographical center of the Medoc between Pauillac and Margaux. Saint-Julien wines have a remarkable aptitude for aging. At the same time harmonious, powerful and fine

PAUILLAC

The AOC Pauillac is located on the left bank of the Gironde and combines exceptional climatic and geological conditions, which allows it to produce very great wines.

POMEROL

Located near Libourne, the Pomerol appellation is famous for the famous Petrus, one of the rarest and most expensive wines in the world. On the palate, Pomerol wines combine finesse and intensity, with flesh and fullness.

SAINT-EMILION

The vineyard is classified as a world heritage site by UNESCO and has many Grands Châteaux. The wines of Saint-Emilion are full-bodied and certainly very diverse depending on their terroir of origin.

PESSAC-LÉOGNAN

The AOC Pessac-Léognan is a fairly recent appellation since it dates from 1987. The appellation includes all the great classified Crus Classés des Graves including the mythical Château Haut-Brion.
